

Tartar Teen Talk

By DORIS POPOVICH

On Friday, Dec. 11, the Tartar Choir presented its annual Christmas and call. The choir entertained the audience by singing the ever-beautiful Christmas Story.

The Girls League had a candy cane sale Thursday and Friday. There was hardly a person around school that wasn't munching on one of those delicious red and white canes.

The Girls and Boys Leagues presented and call last Thursday. The boys' and call was a Christmas program with a lot of program presented by blind gymnasts and the girls and call was a Christmas program with a lot of fine entertainment and, of course, Santa Claus.

A surprise birthday party was given recently in honor of Linda Thistle on her 15th birthday. The party was held at the home of Dolores Hudson and the ones attending were Nancy Rogers, Helen Roberts, Audrey Stevens, Jofran Rubco, Dolores Hudson and, of course, the honoree, Linda.

AT LAST! The juniors have received their beautiful senior rings. For the juniors that do not have theirs yet, they can pick them up at Lawson's Jewelers.

Quite a few Christmas parties were being held around school Friday by the different home-room classes.

The senior play cast is working real hard to make the '54 senior play the best ever. The name of this year's play is "Arctic and Old Lace."

Until next year, here's wishing everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from the students of THIS.

JUVENILE COURTS

In 46 of the states, cities are authorized to establish courts to handle juvenile offenders.

VALUES COMPARED

Pennsylvania's oil wells produce more revenue than the value of all the grain crops harvested in the state.

ECC Fraternity To Visit Boys Home Wednesday

Chi Gamma Iota, veterans fraternity on the campus of El Camino college, will be guests of and hosts to boys of the Junipero Serra Home for Boys in Los Angeles at a Christmas party to be held at 6:30 p.m., Dec. 23.

Some 25 members of the El Camino organization have accepted the dinner invitation of the home, located on N. Union St. The vets will serve the dessert course and plan to present a gift to the home.

In lieu of individual gifts to each of the 28 teenage boys, the fraternity will present ping pong equipment, including table, balls, nets, and paddles as a gift to the institution.

Chairman of the party committee is Phil Montez of Redondo Beach; Ray Wenger of Manhattan Beach is president of Chi Gamma Iota.

Bench Row Slated for El Camino

Adding a new touch to the El Camino College campus will be a row of benches called "Club Row" which will lead from the Administration building to the nearby Social Science building. The row will run parallel to Crenshaw Blvd.

Ten in number, the benches are being purchased by various campus organizations. The name of the contributing club will be inscribed on the back of each bench.

To date, two organizations have purchased benches for the new project. They are the Future Business Leaders of America and the Chi Gamma Iota fraternity, a veterans social group.
